OVERVIEW

The April World Economic Outlook (WEO) report by the International Monetary Fund predicts (IMF) that global economic expansion will continue at a steady pace of 3.2 percent in 2024 and 2025, the same as in Growth in 2024 reflects a 0.1 2023. percentage point improvement attributed to the remarkable resilience of the global economy and the improved demand conditions that materialised towards the end of 2023. Consumption activity was partially funded by household savings and better incomes from strengthened labour markets. This adaptability and demand upturn are expected to continue into 2024.

In the domestic economy, recent indicators from the past three months show some slowdown, suggesting a return to growth trend following the strong post-pandemic recovery over the last two years. Positive sentiments were expressed in the RBF's February 2024 Business Expectations Survey (BES) and Retail Sales Survey (RSS), however results also indicate less optimism in the economy.

Broadly, production in the natural resource sectors of the economy continues to be affected due to industry-specific challenges. mineral water (-35.4%) For instance, production fell while the performance of the timber and related industry output remains dismal in the review period. In contrast, the tourism industry continues to perform above expectations with the number of international visitors increasing to 194,391, an annual growth of 10.9 percent in the March quarter of 2024. However, tight labour market, infrastructure, weather impacted access, and constraints capacity related accommodation may impact the sectoral outlook for sector this year.

Consumption spending shows signs of deceleration. Despite the increase in income (as proxied by PAYE collections, wages paid data from FNPF and inward remittances), the rate of growth in Domestic Value Added Tax (VAT) collections remained lower (33.6% cumulative to March 2024) when compared to the same period in 2023 (64.4%), denoting subdued spending behavior amidst higher prices. New consumption-related lending, a leading indicator for consumption activity, also moderated on a quarterly basis (to 7.0% in March 2024 from 11.6% in December 2023), driven primarily by the wholesale & retail sector. In addition, lower retail sales sentiments were echoed in the RSS in comparison to last year.

The pace of investment activity remained weak, with sentiments in the BES pointing to a slow uptake in investment-related projects. Notably, new credit issued for investment purposes dropped by 29.6 percent cumulative to March, underpinned by lower credit to the building & construction (-31.9%) and the real estate (-27.2%) sectors. Similarly, new loans (second home private individuals investment) contracted by 36.9 percent. While prices of building materials (Building Material Price Index) have moderated, prices are still high compared to pre-pandemic levels.

Labour market conditions continued to be tight, reflecting higher outward migration of labour. To replace the lost labour, higher recruitment intentions were noted in the March quarter of 2024 (15.6%) by the RBF's job advertisement survey.

On the prices front, the annual headline inflation rate rose by 4.6 percent in March 2024. Higher prices for food and nonalcoholic beverages, alcoholic beverages, tobacco & narcotics, transport, restaurants & hotels, housing & utilities, furnishing, health and miscellaneous categories underpinned this outcome.

Financial sector conditions were favourable with adequate liquidity and historically low lending rates which continues to support the country's growth efforts. However, in the March quarter, there was a 14.8 percent decline in new lending by commercial banks.

On the external front, cumulative to February 2024, Fiji's trade deficit¹ narrowed by 3.5 percent, driven by a 8.5 percent growth in exports which outpaced a 0.6 percent growth in import payments. Inward personal remittances grew by 9.8 percent to $189.7 million in the first two months of the year with most funds being channelled via mobile network operators and foreign exchange dealers.

Foreign reserves (RBF holdings) stood at $3,146.8 million in March 2024, sufficient to cover 5.1 months of retained imports (MORI).

Given the comfortable outlook for inflation and foreign reserves, the RBF maintained its monetary policy stance and kept the overnight policy rate at 0.25 percent in the March quarter to support economic growth and financial stability.

THE INTERNATIONAL ECONOMY

International Economic Conditions

According to the IMF in its April WEO, the global economy will continue to expand at a steady pace of 3.2 percent in 2024 and 2025, the same as in 2023 (Graph 1). Despite significant Central Bank interest rate hikes aimed at restoring price stability the global economy has been surprisingly resilient. This can be attributed to an improvement in incomes and the ability of households in major advanced economies to draw on substantial savings accumulated during the pandemic to fund consumption.

Going forward, the adaptability and improved demand are expected to continue into 2024 and 2025, while global inflation is forecasted to decline steadily from 6.8 percent in 2023 to 5.9 percent in 2024.

World GDP Growth Rates

The economies of Fiji's major trading partners (TPEs) experienced slow and uneven growth in the first quarter of 2024. The US economy remained healthy with an annualised growth rate of 1.6 percent in the first quarter of 2024. China's economy also grew by 1.6 percent (seasonally adjusted) in the March quarter of 2024 but remains affected by the downturn in its property sector. Australia and Japan both had slower economic activity, expanding by 0.2 percent and 0.1 percent, respectively in the December quarter. New Zealand on the other hand, entered a technical recession in the December 2023 quarter due to aggressive monetary policy tightening and a decline in investment. The unemployment rate across the TPEs remains low, indicating relatively tight labour market conditions.

Inflation in various countries is gradually easing towards respective Central Bank In Australia, the annual target ranges. inflation rate stood at 3.6 percent in the March quarter, lower from 4.1 percent recorded in the December quarter, but still slightly above the Reserve Bank Australia's 2-3 percent target range. In New Zealand, the annual inflation rate eased to 4.0 percent in the March guarter of 2024 from 4.7 percent in the December quarter but is above the central bank's target band of 1-3 percent. Furthermore, inflation has slowed down in the Euro Area, China and India in the review period but remains above the respective central banks' target ranges except for China, whose inflation is below its target range of 3 percent. On the other hand, price pressures modestly accelerated in the US and Japan to 3.5 percent and 2.7 percent, respectively, in March.

During the first quarter of 2024, the central banks of Fiji's major trading partner economies held their key policy interest rates steady in their respective monetary policy meetings. The only exception was the Bank of Japan, which increased its rates from -0.10 percent to a band range of 0-0.10 percent to achieve its inflation target sustainably. Other policymakers believed that their restrictive monetary policy stance was necessary to reduce inflationary pressures further. (Table 1)

Commodity prices mostly trended higher in the March quarter as geopolitical tensions flared uncertainty in the commodity markets.

World market sugar² prices rose significantly in March to US22.52 cents per pound, 9.4 percent higher than in December, underpinned by weak production prospects from the major producers - Brazil, India and Thailand (Graph 2).

Gold prices rose to a high US$2,238.40 per fine ounce (oz.) in March, 8.0 percent higher than in December. With gold considered as a resilient investment, the hike in price reflected heightened geopolitical uncertainty, more investors betting for gold as they anticipate the US Federal Reserve to cut interest rates and also due to central banks (led by China) buying up gold to reduce their dependence on the US dollar (Graph 3).

The price of Brent crude oil rose on a quarterly basis by 13.6 percent to US$87.48 per barrel in March amid continued geopolitical tensions and OPEC+³ producers maintaining a global production deficit of 2.2 million barrels per day (Graph 4).

While global food prices⁴ eased further by 0.8 percent from December 2023 to 118.3

points in March 2024, international food prices in March saw their first increase in seven months on the back of higher quotations for vegetable oils, dairy products, and meat, although the rate of growth was the slowest since the invasion of Ukraine.

THE DOMESTIC ECONOMY

Domestic Economic Conditions

The Fijian economy is expected to slow down, suggesting a return to the growth trend following the strong post-pandemic recovery over the last two years as indicated by recent economic indicators.

Production

Generally, sectoral production remains weak due to industry-specific challenges and delayed materialisation of certain industry improvements. However, the tourism and related sectors' performance continued to be steady.

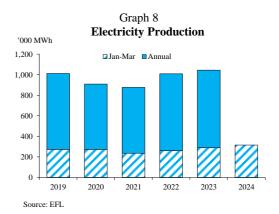

Cumulative to March, visitor arrivals increased by 10.9 percent to 194,391 tourists (Graph 7), from 175,284 visitors in the comparable 2023 period. Australia continues to account for a large share of tourists that visited Fiji, although a mere 0.2 percent increase annually. Nonetheless, tourists from China (182.1%), New Zealand (16.0%), and the US (19.6%) boosted visitor numbers.

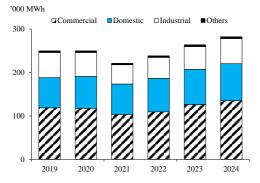

Notably, visitor arrivals in March alone grew annually by 14.5 percent to 69,335 visitors, the highest recorded for that month in a 10-year period.

In the year to March, electricity production by the Energy Fiji Limited (EFL) totalled 315,002 Megawatt hours (MWh), an 8.9 percent increase over the comparative period last year (Graph 8). Renewable energy sources accounted for 66.3 percent of total electricity generated in the review period.

Similarly, electricity consumption rose by 6.9 percent (to 282,054 MWh) cumulative to March, mainly due to increased demand from domestic (4.9%), industrial (9.9%), and commercial (7.1%) consumers (Graph 9).

Graph 9 Electricity Consumption(Jan-Mar)

Gold production cumulative to March has been boosted by the operation of Lion One Metals,⁵ which together with Vatukoula Gold Mines Limited (VGML), has increased the gold production by 40.4 percent to 6,404 ounces, in contrast to an 18.1 percent decline noted by VGML alone in the same period a year ago (Graph 10). On the other hand, mineral water production fell in the same period by 35.4 percent.

Sources: VGML and Lion One Metals

The performance of the forestry industry was mixed. In the year to March, pinewood supply fell by 41.6 percent (to 11,184 tonnes), mainly driven by dip in production. The lower pulp production led to a decline in wood chip production (-19.8% to 9.013 tonnes). On the other hand, saw log production increased by 25.5 percent leading to higher production for sawn timber to 3,014 cubic metres (m³). Contrastingly, mahogany production contracted by 22.9 percent to $3,200 \text{ m}^3$ in the same period.

Consumption

Consumption activity in the first quarter of 2024 showed signs of deceleration.

Receipts from the consumption tax (net VAT) rose by 30.8 percent (to $319.7m) in the year to March, as higher domestic (33.6% to $209.4m) and customs import VAT (47.7% to $201.1m), coupled with the rise in other Government VAT (2.7% to $3.1m), more-than-offset the increase in refunds (83.5% to $93.5m) (Graph 11).6 However as shown by the comparative 2023 period (a 53.3% rise in net VAT collections), the rate of growth has slowed. Additionally, the Wholesale and Retail Trade Survey revealed that sales/service income increased annually by 8.0 percent to $6,589 million in 2023.⁷

Source: Fiji Revenue & Customs Service

Commercial banks' new lending for consumption purposes grew by 7.0 percent over the quarter to $415.0 million, driven by increased disbursement of new loans to the households category (13.0% to $62.0m) and the WRHR⁸ sector (6.0% to $353.0m). However, growth stood lower than the 11.6 percent in the previous quarter.

⁶ Effective 1 August 2023, the VAT rate on nonessential items increased from 9 percent to 15 percent. Likewise, vehicle registrations increased by 20.4 percent (from a 17.0% fall a year ago) cumulative to March 2024, underpinned by higher registrations of second-hand vehicles and new cars.

In tandem, sentiments around the general slowdown resonated with the RBF's February 2024 RSS which now expects a slower growth in retail sales of 4.2 percent in 2024 from 9.4 percent anticipated in the previous survey (Graph 12).

Retail Sales Survey

Investment

Investment activity remained weak, with investor sentiments pointing to a slow uptake in projects.

New credit for investment purposes dropped by 29.6 percent cumulative to March to $169.2 million, underpinned by lower credit to the building & construction (-31.9% to $45.0m) and real estate (-27.2% to $106.6m) sectors. Similarly, new loans to households for second home investment contracted by 36.9 percent (to $17.6m).

⁷ This survey is undertaken by the Fiji Bureau of Statistics on a quarterly basis.

⁸ WRHR – wholesale, retail, hotels, and restaurants.

While, domestic cement sales increased by 12.3 percent in the year to March, prices of building materials rose (1.1%) over the previous quarter, boosted by higher prices largely in the cement & related materials, iron & steel, electrical products, and wood & related materials, which more-than-offset the fall in prices of floor & wall tiles and plumbing ware (Graph 13), hence slowing investment activity.

Graph 13 Building Material Prices Index

In 2023, the estimated value of work putin-place, a measure of construction activity, was higher (by 6.0% to $557.9m) on an annual basis as a result of more public (10.7%) and private (2.8%) construction works. Similarly, the total value strengthened by 16.5 percent in the December quarter.

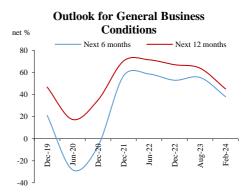

Building permits issued – a forward-looking indicator for construction activity – increased over the quarter, both in number (4.5%), and value (15.3%) in the December 2023 quarter. The number and value rose (38.0% and 0.2%, respectively) on an annual basis as well.

According to the RBF's February 2024 BES results (a leading indicator), firms plan to increase their investment in plants & machinery in the near to medium term, although sentiments are lower than the previous survey. Businesses' intentions to invest in buildings in the next 6-12 months has declined.

Furthermore, overall business confidence remains positive but lower for the next 6 months, as indicated by a net positive 37.7 percent of respondents in comparison to the 55.4 percent in the August 2023 Survey (Graph 14). Sentiments were positive across the surveyed sectors, except for the information & communication (ICT) sector, forestry & logging and tourism sectors. Respondents from the other 12 economic sectors expressed more optimistic views. ¹⁰

⁹ The net balance reflects the general direction of change (difference between the number of respondents expecting an increase and respondents expecting a decrease). A positive value implies an improvement in outlook and vice versa.

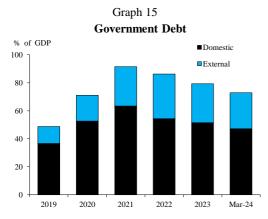

¹⁰ Sectors that expressed positive sentiments in the next 6 months included: mining & quarrying; electricity, gas, steam & air-conditioning supply; water supply, sewerage, waste management & remediation activities; human health & social work; real estate; construction; transport & storage; finance & insurance; wholesale & retail sales; business services; manufacturing; and education sectors.

For the medium term, firms remain optimistic with a net positive 45.4 percent of respondents anticipating business conditions to improve although lower than the August 2023 survey outcome (a net 64.0% of respondents). Respondents from all economic sectors expect favourable business conditions in the medium term, except for the ICT, forestry & logging and business services sectors.

However, existing issues such as shortage of skilled labour, higher operational costs, infrastructure capacity, and barriers to doing business, can impact investment plans going forward.

Public Finance

Government debt stood at $9,974.0 million in March 2024, or 72.8 percent of GDP (Graph 15). Domestically denominated debt totalled $6,454.3 million (47.1% of GDP), while external debt stood at $3,519.6 million (25.7% of GDP).

Sources: Ministry of Finance, Strategic Planning, National Development and Statistics, RBF

Labour Market

Labour market conditions remained tight, reflecting higher outward migration of labour. As per the RBF Job Advertisement Survey, the number of jobs advertised rose by 15.6 percent cumulative to March, from a rise of 27.5 percent in the comparative previous year (Graph 16). The outturn was due to improved recruitment intentions mostly in the agriculture; construction; and transport, storage & communication sectors.

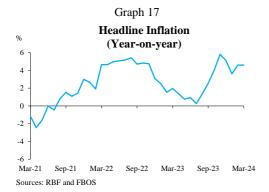

Sources: The Fiji Times and Fiji Sun

Staff retention strategies due to labour shortage, inflation adjustment to salaries along with higher labour demand in some sectors may have pushed wages higher, as reflected in the PAYE tax collections increasing annually by 20.6 percent (to $50.6m) in the review period, surpassing the 17.1 percent growth noted in last year's corresponding period.

Inflation

The annual headline inflation rate in March stood at 4.6 percent, from 5.1 percent recorded in the previous quarter. The outcome was underpinned by higher prices in the food and non-alcoholic beverages, alcoholic beverages, tobacco & narcotics, transport, restaurants & hotels, housing & utilities, furnishing, health and miscellaneous categories (Graph 17).

Going forward, the volatility in global commodity prices due to geopolitical tensions and the possibility of an increase in the national minimum wage rate are expected to have an upside risk to the inflation outlook. Nonetheless, inflation is expected to moderate to 3.0 percent by the end of the year.

Domestic Financial Conditions

The RBF maintained its accommodative monetary policy stance during the March quarter by keeping the overnight policy rate at 0.25 percent and ensuring adequate liquidity.

Excess liquidity in the banking system, as measured by the banks' demand deposits (BDD), remained adequate, although declining by 10.9 percent on a quarterly basis to $1,896.1 million at the end of March (Graph 18).

The fall in BDD for the last three quarters was largely impacted by the decline in foreign reserves. Also accounting for the decline, although marginally, was the repayment towards RBF targeted lending facilities¹¹ by banks and FDB which effectively drew money out of the banking system.

Financial Intermediaries

Broad money (M3)/ Money supply increased slightly (0.9%) to $11,243.0 million during the March quarter compared to the 1.9 percent growth noted in the December quarter. The bulk of the growth in M3 was led by net domestic assets (NDA) (4.1%), while net foreign assets (NFA) continued to decline over the quarter (-7.7%). The increase in NDA was attributed to increased private sector credit (2.2%), which are mostly commercial bank loans to private sector business entities (PSBEs) and to the household sector. Furthermore, net credit to (claims on) the central government position grew (21.7%, $116.0m) due to the fall in demand deposit balances of the central government at commercial banks. The contraction in ¹¹ Since the beginning of this fiscal year, the RBF has ceased all lending under its Unconventional Monetary Policy facilities.

NFA was largely driven by the decline in gross reserves (-7.2%), which more-thanoffset the decline in foreign liabilities (-0.8%) during the same period.

Narrow money (M1), a component of broad money, rose slightly (0.2%) in the March quarter compared to the 1.5 percent growth during the previous quarter, led by higher transferrable deposits (0.6%,$42.4m), particularly demand deposits of non-bank financial institutions (NBFIs) which offset the lower demand deposit balances of PSBEs. This more-than-offset the decline in currency in circulation (-2.9%) in the review period, which emanated from the lower issuance of new notes over the quarter. Other deposits, a sub-component of M3 also increased (3.1%), driven by time deposits of PSBEs and NBFIs.

Commercial banks' outstanding loans increased by 2.5 percent (by $214.9m) in the March quarter to $8,748.4 million, compared to a 3.2 percent growth in the previous quarter. The quarterly outcome was mainly due to higher lending to the WRHR, households, real estate, manufacturing and professional & business services sectors (Graph 19).

However, new lending by commercial banks fell by 14.8 percent ($163.3m) cumulative to the March quarter, totalling $942.6 million, largely underpinned by the decline in new credit to the transport & storage, real estate, building & construction and manufacturing sectors.

Commercial banks' outstanding lending rates continued to decline while new lending and deposit rates increased over the review period. The weighted average outstanding lending rate reached a historical low of 4.72 percent, from 4.77 percent in the December quarter. However, the weighted average new lending rate rose to 4.86 percent from 4.77 percent in the previous quarter.

The weighted average existing time deposit rate rose further to 1.55 percent in March from 1.40 percent in December 2023. Similarly, the weighted average new time deposit rate increased to 2.05 percent from 1.52 percent over the same period. The upward movement in deposit rates, and the subsequent increase seen in new lending rates, can be attributed to the fall in liquidity levels.

As a result of these movements, both the outstanding (20bp) and new interest rate (43 bp) spread narrowed over the March quarter (Graph 20).

Money Market

Government treasury bills were undersubscribed by $41.0 million in the March quarter, with a total of $99.0 million accepted on maturities of 91, 182, and 364 days, having respective yields¹² of 0.06, 0.11, and 0.20 percent. This is the first time since quarter two of 2019 that treasury bills were undersubscribed for two consecutive quarters.

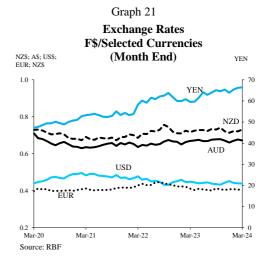

Bond Market

The Fiji Government Infrastructure bonds were undersubscribed by $58.0 million in the March quarter, and $87.0 million was accepted on the 2 and 20 years maturities, with yields of 0.56 and 4.75 percent, respectively. Over the same period, $1.9 million worth of Viti bonds were accepted on the 5, 7, and 10 years maturity, earning fixed rates of 3.00, 3.50, and 4.00 percent, respectively.

Exchange Markets

Exchange rate movements between the Fijian dollar (FJD) and major trading partner currencies remain generally mixed over the March quarter (Graph 21).

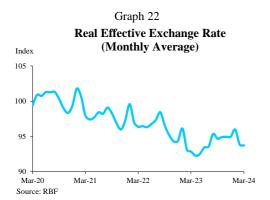

On a quarterly basis, the FJD strengthened against the Japanese Yen (JPY) (3.8%), NZ dollar (NZD) (2.4%) and the Australian dollar (1.6%) but weakened against the US dollar (-2.9%) and the Euro (-0.7).

The Nominal Effective Exchange Rate¹³ index fell (-0.03%) over the March quarter reflecting a slight depreciation of the Fiji dollar against the trading partner currencies. Similarly, the Real Effective Exchange Rate¹⁴ index fell by 1.3 percent, indicating an improvement in Fiji's international competitiveness due to lower domestic inflation relative to key trading partner economies (Graph 22).

Banking Industry Quarterly Condition Report – 31 December 2023

Overview - Commercial Banks

The overall performance of the commercial banking sector was assessed as satisfactory, based on satisfactory earnings, capital and liquidity positions with a marginal rating for asset quality.

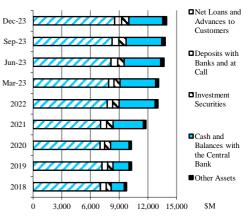

Balance Sheet

Total assets of commercial banks stood at $14.0 billion with growth noted of 1.1 percent (or $157.6m) and 7.0 percent (or $907.7m) over the quarter and year respectively.

The growth over the quarter was mainly attributed to the increase in net loans (by $277.9m), other assets (by $53.8m), cash on hand (by $43.8m) and statutory reserve deposits (by $19.4m), off-set by the decline in exchange settlement account (by $249.3m) (Graph 23).

Graph 23 Structural Change and Growth in Commercial Banks' Assets

Commercial banks' total deposits rose by $164.5 million (or 1.5%) over the quarter to $11.3 billion, largely attributed to time and demand deposits (Graph 24).

¹⁴ The REER index is the sum of each component of the NEER index, adjusted by the relative price differential between Fiji and each of Fiji's major trading partners. The index measures the billion was underpinned by placements from non-bank financial institutions (NBFIs) (by $72.0m) and public enterprises (PEs) (by $54.7m), offset by maturities of private individuals (PIs) (by $21.2m) deposits.

Similarly, demand deposits increased by 0.7 percent (or $58.2m) to $8.8 billion as a result of placements by PIs (by $110.8m) and private sector business entities (PSBEs) (by $60.1m), which outweighed the withdrawals of PEs (by $79.5m), nonresidents (by $20.0m) and central Government (by $15.8m) demand deposits.

Savings deposits further declined from $50.6 million to $48.6 million, mainly due to withdrawals of $1.5 million by PIs.

Commercial banks' gross loans & advances stood at $8.7 billion, registering a growth of 3.2 percent (or $267.7m) over the quarter and 9.6 percent (or $756.9) over the year (Graph 25). The increase in lending over the quarter was largely driven by loans to PSBEs (by $219.6m) and PIs (by $55.1m).

Graph 25
Commercial Banks' Gross Loans,
Advances and Leases by Sector

The wholesale, retail, hotels & restaurants (WRHR) sector, accounted for the majority of the $1.1 billion in new loans disbursed for the quarter at 30.1 percent (or $333.1m), followed by PIs ($180.3m), real estate ($143.1m) and manufacturing ($134.0m) sectors.

Capital Adequacy

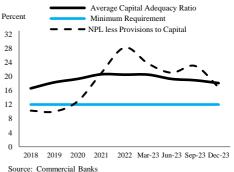

Commercial banks' combined capital adequacy ratio stood at 18.1 percent as at 31 December 2023 (September 2023: 18.9%). The decrease in capital adequacy ratio was due to growth in risk weighted assets by 2.4 percent (or $201.1m) while total capital fell by 2.0 percent (or $32.0m).

All commercial banks continued to comply with the prudential minimum capital adequacy requirement of 12.0 percent (Graph 26).

Graph 26

Commercial Banks' Capital

Adequacy

The increase in total risk weighted assets over the quarter was a result of the onbalance sheet exposures increasing by $276.0 million, stemming largely from the 100 percent risk weighted assets category.

The prepayment of Tier 2 term subordinated debts ($30.0m) contributed to the decrease in commercial banks' total capital.

Non-performing loans (NPLs) less specific provisions to capital ratio stood at 16.9 percent, improving from 23.9 percent in the September 2023 quarter due to the decline in NPLs.

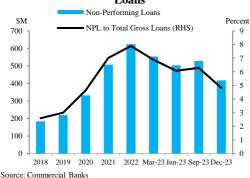

Asset Quality

Asset quality for commercial banks continued to be assessed as marginal, though classified exposures to gross loans ratio reduced to 4.8 percent (September 2023: 6.3%).

Graph 27

Commercial Banks' Non-Performing

Loans

Commercial banks' classified exposures declined considerably over the quarter by 21.0 percent (or $110.7m) to $417.4 million, largely due to the upgrading of substandard accounts (by $90.9m). The doubtful and loss categories also noted declines by $14.0 million and $5.8 million, respectively. The industry's classified remain exposures dominant substandard category ($238.4m), followed by doubtful ($128.3m) and loss ($50.7m) The special mention category noted an increase of 5.2 percent (or $14.6m) to $296.8 million.

Total past due levels for commercial banks' rose moderately over the quarter by 1.3 percent (or $3.1m) to $241.5 million, as a result of the increase in accounts aged "1 - 6 months" (by $5.4m) and "1 - 2 years" (by $2.9m) (Graph 31).

Balance Sheet

Funds under management grew by 4.5 percent (or $24.7m) to $576.5 million relative to the 2.2 percent increase in the preceding quarter. Similarly, on an annual basis, funds under management grew by 10.7 percent (or $55.7m).

The quarterly growth was attributed to the increases in fair value reserve and unitholders' funds by $14.9 million and $9.8 million, respectively.

Assets

Total assets of the MIS market grew by 4.7 percent (or $26.5m) over the quarter to $591.4 million, attributed to further investments (by $36.7m) and other assets (by $0.7m). However, cash on hand (by $5.7m) and accrued income (by $5.3m) declined over the quarter.

The combined investment portfolio expanded by 8.2 percent (or $36.7m) to $485.2 million in the review quarter (September 2023: $448.4m) underpinned by the increases in the following investment categories:

- unlisted securities by $22.5 million;
- listed securities by $9.8 million; and
- bonds by $4.8 million.

Over the year, the investment portfolio of MISs expanded by 14.9 percent (or $63.1m).

Liabilities

Total liabilities increased by 14.5 percent (or $1.9m) over the quarter to $14.9 million as at 31 December 2023. The increases were due to the growth in sundry creditors (by $2.1m), distributions payable (by $1.9m) and 'others' (by $1.3m). Redemption payable (by $2.9m) and management fee payable (by $0.5m) declined over the quarter.

Liquid Assets

Liquid assets of the MIS market contracted by 3.0 percent (or $5.7m) over the quarter to $179.8 million as at 31 December 2023. The decrease was underpinned by the decline in cash on hand by $5.7 million while term deposits held with financial institutions remain unchanged. The liquid assets was able to cover 31.2 percent of unitholders' equity.

Unit repurchases fell over the quarter to $7.9 million (units redeemed: 6.1m) when compared to $8.8 million (units redeemed: 7.2m) in the preceding quarter. Institutional investors continued to record the highest repurchases at 72.8 percent (or $5.8m) followed by local retail investors at 27.2 percent (or $2.2m).

The repurchases to unitholders' funds ratio reduced from 2.2 times in the preceding quarter to 2.0 times in the December 2023 quarter. As a result of the decrease in repurchases, the ratio of liquid assets to repurchases improved from 21.1 times to 22.6 times.

Earnings

The combined net profit of the MIS market for the December 2023 quarter remained consistent at $2.0 million when compared to the preceding quarter. This was largely attributed to decline in both investment income and investment expenses over quarter by $0.1 million to $3.3 million and $1.3 million, respectively.

The Annualised Return on Investment (AROI) remained at 2.7 percent despite the marginal decrease in investment income (Table 4).

Note:

 $^{{}^{1/}\}textit{The Monetary & Credit Aggregates table is derived from the Central Bank Survey (CBS) (Table 3) and Other Depository Corporations Survey (ODCS) (Table 2).}$

^{2'} Monetary base is normally referred to as reserve money and its components include currency in circulation, ODCS deposits at the Reserve Bank and other deposits of other financial corporations.

^{3/}As of May 2012, the official definition of broad money has changed to include securities of money issuers. As a result, M3 will now be known as broad money.
