89	5-12-24	Hon. Prof. Biman Prasad Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Finance and Strategic Planning, National Development and Statistics	Update on the Fiji Economy	The Fijian economy is now projected to grow by 3.8 percent in 2024, up from the 2.8 percent forecast in June. This upward revision is primarily due to a robust recovery in the tourism sector, along with growth in related industries such as transport, accommodation, wholesale & retail, and public administration, finance and insurance sectors. Consumption has been bolstered by the positive ripple effects from increased tourism, higher incomes, growing remittances, and increased Government spending. Investment activity has also risen, reflected in the growth of new lending by commercial banks for investment, particularly in building, construction, and other sectors. Inflation has fallen to 0.8 percent in November from 5.8 percent a year ago, and is expected to be much lower than the initially projected 3.5 percent by December 2024	The Hon. Premila Kumar and Hon. Viliame Naupoto subsequently responded
